When The Smoke Clears: A Story of Brotherhood, Resilience and Hope

When the Smoke Clears: A Story of Brotherhood, Resilience and Hope is the new feature-length 70 minute documentary from Jerusalem U which tells the true stories of young soldiers whose injuries force them to forge a new identity and rebuild their lives. Making breakthroughs and finding meaning by reaching out to those in need, they discover renewed meaning and healing through giving to others.

3:30 – 5:30 pm

The Long Way Home

This Academy Award-winning documentary examines the critical post-World War II period from 1945-1948 and the plight of tens of thousands of refugees who survived the Holocaust but whom most of the world left to fend for themselves. Their clandestine attempts to get to the Jewish homeland led to the creation of the State of Israel in 1948. Narrated by Morgan Freeman and featuring the voices of Edward Asner, Sean Astin, Martin Landau, Miriam Margolyes, David Paymer and Nina Siemaszko.

6:00 – 7:45 pm
